Platinum Eye – Venturing Behind the Velvet Rope to Find Well Curated Luxury Opportunities—Premieres Sunday at 12:00 Noon on FYI

Eight Episodes of Platinum Eye will focus on Glamorous, Yet Accessible Locations
Such as Montana's Paws Up, Highclere Castle, Downton Abbey's "Home", Morocco's Bustling Marrakech, and Behind the Scenes at the Oscars in Hollywood

Friday February 26th 2021...Greenwich CT....Platinum Eye Productions announces its official season premiere of its 10 episode series, Platinum Eye, this coming Sunday at 12:00 Noon on A&E's FYI channel. The series focuses on luxury and lifestyle opportunities "behind the velvet rope" and well off the usual itineraries, as the show's host, Avril Graham, Executive Fashion & Beauty Editor of Harper's Bazaar, takes the film crew to the castle where Downton Abbey was shot and interviews Lord and Lady Carnarvon, the proprietors, and films their amazing home, farm and visitor opportunities. Then it is off to Montana, to Paws Up, the most glamorous "camping" trip on the planet, where every type of exciting, even daring activity awaits the luxury adventurer. On to Morocco, Barbados, racing with McLaren sports cars, backstage at the Oscars, and over to Paris for Couture Week, the show delivers luxury as few rarely see it, but opens the doors for your experience.

Originator and producer of Platinum Eye, Carole Haarmann Acunto, called the show a veritable whirlwind of activity that takes viewers to new vistas and offers them access to opportunities in travel and recreation whose memories will last a lifetime: “Luxury is an experience open to everyone who knows where to find it and how to see it; Platinum Eye presents just that. Our talented host, Avril Graham, and production team, Ric Zivic and Christopher Perera of 5 Speed Entertainment, have done a beautiful job and we anticipate strong receptivity, great ratings and many fans the world over. Support from the advertising community has been excellent and has begun to line up as we look to season two. Welcome aboard!”

Watch on the FYI channel of the A&E Network, 12 noon, Sunday, February 28, 2021, 10 episodes running every Sunday at noon following the debut.
